Renee has been a part of the school's Netball Program (2014), the Swimming Program (2015–2016) and the Interschool Athletics team (2014–2015). It is in swimming that she has excelled, being a member of the Interschool Swimming team every year. She has received many Churchlands Champions Awards. In school competitions in 2014, Renee was second runner up for girls in athletics and champion in swimming. She was second runner up for swimming in 2016 and runner up in 2017.

Outside of school, Renee has been a member of the UWA Water Polo Club (2012–2014 and 2017), the Melville Water Polo Club (2016 and 2018), the North Coast Water Polo Club (2014–2018), the University of New South Wales Water Polo Club (2016–2017) and the Classics Netball Club (2015–2016). She has represented Western Australia in the State Schools Competition in 2016 and in 2017 she was the team Captain. She also represented New South Wales in water polo at an International Youth Festival in 2017. Renee's interests include water polo, coaching, cooking and netball. She babysits for multiple families each week and volunteers her time coaching and umpiring water polo.

Renee is a hardworking and conscientious student who possesses a quiet, but steely determination to consistently produce work of outstanding quality. Renee's work ethic is of the highest standard and she completes all tasks and assessments with much focus, attention and detail. She is always well prepared for class, and has exceptional organisational skills.

Renee has demonstrated the ability to grasp difficult concepts and apply her understandings with ease in a range of written and practical formats. There is no doubting that Renee is dedicated to her studies and has fully committed herself to preparing to the best of her ability. She has shown herself to be an outstanding student who sets high standards and subsequently achieves exceptional results. The fact that Renee has been able to aptly manage elite level sporting commitments and be one of the highest performing students in the Physical Education Studies course, is testament to her strong work habits and general approach to the subject.
